Cook's Flex Spoon

SKU: CC630-001

This innovative spoon is the safest eating utensil on the market. Made of FDA approved silicone, the flexible material can be twisted and bent, but it cannot be sharpened into a weapon, and it will still support a full spoonful of oatmeal. Designed for use in high security areas such as psychiatric units, suicide watch cells, or even in general population living areas in a correctional facility where security is a priority.
